

ST. MICHAEL'S EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

Come Celebrate at 8th & State

St. Michael's Episcopal Cathedral in Boise, ID, is seeking a highly motivated, enthusiastic, and spiritually grounded priest to serve as the Canon for Parish Life. The successful candidate will work collaboratively with the dean and other cathedral staff to provide leadership and support for the congregation's growth, outreach, and engagement; including working with the local university to create an Episcopal campus ministry.

Responsibilities:

- Preach and preside regularly at both weekday and weekend services
- Provide pastoral care and support to members of the congregation.
- Work with the dean and other staff to plan liturgy
- Work with the dean and other staff to develop and implement strategies for congregational growth and outreach
- Develop and coordinate programs and initiatives that support the spiritual growth and development of parishioners and newcomers
- Facilitate communication and collaboration among parishioners, committees, and staff to promote current fellowship and outreach programs and develop new programs, as needed
- Manage the cathedral's volunteer program and ensure that volunteers are appropriately trained, scheduled, and supported
- Oversee the coordination of events and activities, including educational programs (in coordination with Canon for Christian Formation) and social events
- Assist with stewardship and development efforts to support the cathedral's mission and programs
- Work with cathedral staff, the Diocese of Idaho, and the local university to create a campus ministry

Requirements:

- Master of Divinity or equivalent
- Ordained (or scheduled to be ordained) in the Episcopal Church
- Compelling and engaging preacher

- Strong leadership and organizational skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to manage multiple projects and priorities effectively
- Experience with campus ministry is desired but not required

The Canon for Parish Life is a full-time position. Beginning salary is $70,000 plus benefits. To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, OTM profile, and links to two sermons (video preferred) to dean@stmichaelscathedral.org.
